DEVELOPMENT POST

NEW YORK -- Mr. Richard Lampart has been named staff officer for capital development at the Episcopal Church Center. His July 1 appointment completes the staffing of the Center's Stewardship/Development Office which also includes the Rev. Thomas H. Carson, Jr. as executive and the Rev. Henry J. Free as stewardship officer.

In announcing the appointment, Father Carson said that Mr. Lampart would work in areas of major donor research and foundation solicitation.

Mr. Lampart is a graduate of Kenyon College and holds a master's degree in international affairs from Columbia University. He has spent the last 12 years with Readers Digest -- six years as a direct mail specialist and the last six in the financial/statistical section of the publishing firm's international operations.

Mr. Lampart lives in Bedford, N.Y. with his wife Suzanne and their three children. He is active in St. Matthew's Episcopal Church there.
